School Poem

We have finished our dear old school days
In this old school we love so dear.
We are now ready to be drafted
Out into this world without fear.

Our teachers have finished training us,
And are ready to let us go
Out into the large battleground of life,
Where our strength we must show.

Our class will never disappoint you,
No matter what we do.
Our ambitions we will fulfill
This year of nineteen forty-two.

We will never forget our dear old friends
Back here in Wendell High.
Now we must go marching onward,
So to you all we bid good-bye.

— Ethel Brown

Remember Wendell High

(Tune: "Remember Pearl Harbor")

Just remember Wendell High
As we leave our school today.
Just remember our studies
As we go from day to day.

We will always remember
How we fought for leadership.
Just remember our classes
As we leave for other trips.

Don't forget our nice teachers
For they did their part the best.
And our school board did help us
To gain the best success.

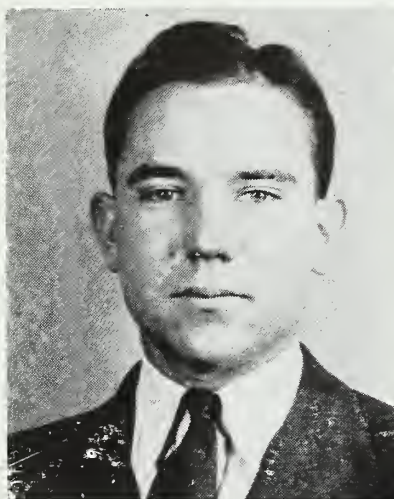

We will never forget you
As we tackle other jobs.
And we hope God might bless you
As you conquer other mobs.

SALUTATORY

To each of you who has come tonight we extend a hearty welcome. It gives us so very much pleasure that after eleven years of working and striving we stand before you tonight a graduating class of thirty-six in number. Your interest makes our efforts worth while.

Our years of school life have been so pleasant that we hope tonight that we can pass to you some of the more frivolous phases of our life in Wendell High School. Laugh and have fun with us for this is one of the happiest nights of our life. We have looked forward to this occasion for eleven years and now that it has come, we are so glad that you are here to celebrate with us.

We realize the seriousness of this occasion. This is truly a commencement, the beginning of our life of responsibility, and the time when we have to make decisions for ourselves. Yet now we take off our cloak of responsibility and turn time backward in its flight and are children again, just for tonight.

We are so glad you are here. If you like our program, tell us! If you do not, remember, "Silence is golden."

Mable Parrish

VALEDICTORY

For the last time the Senior Class of 1942 of Wendell High School wishes to pay tribute to those who have been responsible for their reaching this goal of graduation, and to bid farewell to the school that has been the source of instruction for eleven years. It is always a pleasure, more than a duty, to give appreciation where appreciation is due, yet it is sad to bid farewell.

First we wish to express our gratitude to our parents. For these eleven years they have supported, encouraged and helped us. They have been the first to rejoice in our successes and the first to console us in our failures. Always, regardless, they have stood behind us, pushing us ever forward. Never have they failed us. Abraham Lincoln said, "All that I am, I owe to my mother." We can say that the fact that we are here tonight we owe to our parents.

Next we would like to pay tribute to our teachers, both those present tonight and those who are absent, wherever they are. For eleven years they have given their best to prepare us to live fully and completely as worthy citizens of the United States of America. Our feeble words can poorly express our regard for those who have shared our destinies. Our hopes, our aims, our impressions, and our ideals are expressions of the instruction that we have received in Wendell High School. As the Israelites bound upon the wrists of their children the Mosaic laws, so have they imprinted upon our minds many worthy lessons.

To you who have come tonight to share our honors we would like to express our appreciation for your interest in our welfare. We hope that we can uphold all your expectations of us.

Now, to my classmates, I wish for you all the good fortune and happiness that life can hold in store for one. In spite of the turmoil of the world today, there is a future for you. Keep faith with yourselves and your fellow man and you cannot fail.

We leave you now and, "departing leave behind us, footprints on the sands of time." Footprints that we hope are worthy to be followed.

Alta Ruth Cooke

CLASS PROPHECY

A gay gypsy danced before the campfire to the tune of the haunting gypsy violins. The pulsing violins throbbed their last notes and the brightly plumaged dancer approached me.

"Your fortune, Sir, cross my hand with silver and know the future."

"My class, "I murmured, "the class of 1942, what is their future?"

"Draw closer, Sir," she replied, "give me their names and I will reveal their future."

I drew closer and as I repeated each name she intoned in awesome accents the future of the class of 1942.

Billy Britt is a prosperous Wendell merchant—a substantial citizen.

Willard Cash is proud of his herd of registered cows on a large farm near Wendell.

Henry Clarke has succeeded his father in the milling business.

Edward Currin is still the "Romeo" of Wendell — unmarried but still hoping.

Clarence Fuller is earning his livelihood as the greatest juggling artist of all time.

Radio features Jimmy Henderson as the best authority on tobacco in the United States. His home is in Wendell.

All-American Olympic sports writers cannot print all the news of that marvel of all sport fans — Richard Honeycutt.

Fred Johnson is billed in New York as the greatest acrobat of his time.

Carl Thomas Knott has eclipsed all other authorities, even that of "Available Jones" of Dogpatch by his success in his Court of Domestic Relations.

Playing at the most prominent theaters of the nation are Titus Painter, George Phipps, and Edward Todd, THE THREE STOOGES.

Hilary Price looks calmly over his spectacles at a crowded class room at Yale University.

Carlton Satterfield is hailed throughout the nation as the winner of the Academy award for acting.

Ray Strickland delights the hearts of the feminine world with his beautifully designed hats.

S. L. Yeargin sits on the Supreme Court bench of the United States — one of the best judicial heads of the country.

A vast hall filled with music lovers from everywhere — to hear the famous Beverly Brantley — an opera star.

Ethel Brown and Dorothy Dean are using their high school training by maintaining a beautiful home for their respective husbands and children.

Alta Ruth Cooke has reached the top of the ladder in her profession — a dancer.

Kathleen Crawford is content to let the rest of the world go by, and why not? A husband and family is enough to keep her busy.

Annie Marie Doans and Frances Eudy can be heard each evening by dialing 680 on your radio — a famous comedy team.

Emma Ray Earp has just organized a new political party in North Carolina — she is making headlines.

Annie Sue Mattox has her name on her office door — Manager, Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

Annie Rose Wells is the happy, contented housewife of which American people are so proud.

Elizabeth Johnson is being sought by colleges and organizations to give advice and instructions in Physical Education.

Evelyn Joseph quietly moves through the wards of a well-known hospital. She is known as an "Angel of Mercy."

Mary Alice Knott and Naomi Herndon are famous aviatrixes. Their names often splash the headlines with new honors.

Mary Elizabeth Dean is Instructor of Sociology at one of the most exclusive girls' schools in America.

Louise Medlin has attained fame as an outstanding scientist. Women flock to obtain her new reducing medicine.

Frances Martin's newest book has just been voted the Best Seller of the year. She has won fame and a fortune with her "mighty pen."

Mable Parrish has become a famous cosmetologist.

Decima Rhodes has put the Wendell Home Economics Department on the map.

Ann Wiggs very successfully combines housekeeping and school teaching. She is so beloved that her students in the primary grades refuse to allow her to devote all her time to the career of a housewife.

Emma Laura Barham has just received an appointment as ambassador to a foreign country. Her distinctive ability in foreign languages has won this honor for her.

"That's all," murmurs the gypsy.

The last embers of the fire flickered out. The stars twinkled brightly in a cold sky. I slowly arose from my cramped position and stole away. What a class!

Thomas Perry, Prophet

CLASS HISTORY

Time marches on! Eleven years ago Wendell School opened its doors to receive a group of happy, eager children, intent upon a new experience, their first day at school. The days of the "birch rod" were past. No more were "readin and ritin' and 'rithmetic taught to the tune of the hickory stick." School was fun! Reading was an adventure. Arithmetic was a game and writing a wonderful accomplishment. Beverly Brantley, Alta Ruth Cooke, Annie Sue Mattox, Mary Elizabeth Dean, Annie Marie Doans, Emma Ray Earp, Frances Eudy, Naomi Herndon, Billy Britt, Jimmy Henderson, Fred Johnson, Evelyn Joseph, Frances Martin, Mary Alice Knott, Thomas Perry, Hilary Price, Carlton Satterfield, and Ray Strickland began their scholastic life 11 years ago under the tutelage of Mrs. Gladys Griffin and Miss Eva Perkins. Today the portals of Wendell School opens and these students march forth to face the world.

Many teachers have contributed their part to the development of the class of 1942, Miss Helen Wootton, Mrs. Evelyn Stott, Miss Frances Rogers, Miss Myrtle Bailey, Miss Marjorie Richardson, Miss Helen Bullock, Miss Gladys Baker, Miss Lessie Richardson, Miss Linelle Clark, Miss Frances Brame, Miss Mary Elizabeth York, Miss Lava Howard, Miss Zora Waller, Miss Norma Lee Dawson, Mrs. Carl Ousley, Mrs. E. T. Boyette, Mrs. Craven Broughton, Mrs. Annie Mackie High, Mrs. B. C. Williams, Mr. B. C. Williams, Mr. E. T. Boyette, Mr. Marsh Knott, Mr. L. C. Murphy, and Mr. J B Evans

Mr. H. T. McDuffie most worthily trained several members of this class in band and Glee Club. His work is being carried on by Mr. Mark Osborne.

Many high lights flash across the kaleidoscope of memory.

The unpleasant and disagreeable things that have been necessary for good behavior are forgotten, and one only remembers the beautiful and pleasant events. The class stood before the microphone over W. P. T. F. in Raleigh for the first time when in the sixth grade. They faced together the trial of the seventh grade examinations which culminated in a lovely exercise in which a certificate was awarded to each student entering High School.

The class of 1942 has spent 4 happy years in high school. They have participated in athletics. Billy Britt, Richard Honeycutt, Carl Thomas Knott, "held that line" on the football squad. Carl Thomas Knott and Richard Honeycutt, Elizabeth Johnson, Naomi Herndon and Mary Alice Knott have helped bring three championships and two runner-up trophies in basketball. The girls intramural basketball team held the trophy for 1941. In dramatics the Senior Class has presented in 1941 "Laugh Clown," and as a senior play "Romance 'n a Boarding House." These have been most successful. Emma Laura Barham and Elizabeth Johnson have brought honors to the class by winning medals in recitation contests. Billy Britt has attained the honor of being elected to the National Honor Society. Emma Laura Barham, Beverly Brantley, Alta Ruth Cooke, Elizabeth Johnson, Mary Alice Knott, Frances Martin, Mable Parrish are members of the honor society — The Beta Club.

The Senior Class has presented this year a most unusually successful Hallow'een Carnival.

"Much water has passed under the bridge." To the eighteen students who eleven years ago entered school for the first time, nineteen have been added and now thirty-seven seniors stand at the threshold of graduation — a class with a history of which it can be proud — a class which hopes that it has never been called and found wanting!

— Alta Ruth Cooke, Historian
